

YALE TIES CORNELL

New Haven Athletes Get
Twelve in Intercollegiates.

QUALIFYING HEATS ARE BEST

Harvard Has Ten Men Among the Eligibles, While Nine Wolverines Will Start To-day—Coholan, of Old Eli, Pushes Taylor, the Pennsylvania Sprinter, in the Four-forty.

Boston, Mass., May 31.—The preliminary trials of the thirty-second annual track and field championship of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America were held here to-day at the Harvard Stadium. The chief feature of the weeding-out contests was the anxiety among the colleges to see which would qualify the most men. When the day was over it was found that Yale and Cornell were a tie, both having twelve men qualified. The New Haven contingent were a bit of a surprise by the strength they showed, and their chances looked improved for to-day. Harvard qualified ten men and Michigan nine. The score of the others were: Pennsylvania, eight; Princeton, six; Amherst, four; Swarthmore, Dartmouth, Williams, and Syracuse, three each, and Johns Hopkins, one.

One of the most exciting trials of the day was the first heat of the quarter in which the star opponents were J. B. Taylor, the colored boy from Pennsylvania, and W. T. Coholan, of Yale. The Yale man made the darkly fly all his steam to come home in front, and the time, 49 4-seconds, shows the quality of the pace better than anything else. Rogers, of Cornell, last year's winner, ran a fine heat in the quarter, and reeled it in 50 1-4 seconds.

The 129-yard hurdles saw the top notchers in great shape. Shaw, of Dartmouth, and Hubbard, of Amherst, galloped away with their heats in great shape. Garrels, the Michigan timber-topper, accounted for a heat, and his time of 15 4-seconds placed him in the same class as Hubbard and Shaw, and the final to-day should be worth going miles to see.

Becke's Record Endangered.

The weight throwers had an interesting time of it at the hammer and shot. Krueger, of Amherst, proved himself to be a fine shot-putter, with his put of 45 feet 8 inches. Garrels was the surprise in the shot, with 45 feet 2 inches, and immediately afterward he had a shy at the hurdles. One of his puts with the shot tipped over 46 feet, but he made a slight foul, and the record of 46 feet by Fred Becke, of Yale, just escaped being shattered. E. B. Parsons, of Yale, showed a splash of his old-time form in the first heat of the half mile. The time was 1 minute 58 3-5 seconds, a good record, especially as the Yalestan was not pushed very hard.
